

Jury Gives Horodnycky Life In Prison

A 47th District Court jury deliberated about two hours Tuesday afternoon before finding Michal Horodnycky, 48, of UMBARGER, guilty of murder with malice, but deliberated only 18 minutes before sentencing him to a life term in the state penitentiary.

Horodnycky was found guilty of the April 6 fatal shooting of Mrs. Cora Samuels, 62, of 506 W. 38th in Amarillo. He had also been indicted for the fatal shooting of Mrs. Samuel's sister, Mrs. Zula Dell.

The two-day trial, which Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen termed "the toughest technical case I have ever tried" seemed in doubt right until the jury returned with the guilty verdict. A spirited and relentless defense was offered by Amarillo attorneys Dean Dunlap and Charles Rittenberry.

Rittenberry hammered at what he called "weak links in the chain" and heard his co-counsel state that "the police so botched the evidence out there (the scene of the crime) the real killer could never be found. They had a patsy."

In his closing argument Dowlen said "I can smoke cigarettes until I am 90 years old and I'll never come up with as big a smokescreen as the defense has done in this case."

Mrs. John Jolley was the first witness called as the state opened its case.

Mrs. Jolley testified that she went to the Samuels home about three days before the shooting and found Horodnycky crying. He had a .38 caliber pistol beside him, she said, and declared that if Mrs. Samuels left him he would kill her. She also told the jury that she thought Mrs. Samuels was a heavy drinker.

The state presented a diagram of the Samuels home just prior to the time Sgt. John Bacon took the stand. Bacon was one of the Amarillo officers called to the scene at the time of the shooting.

He said he knocked on the door upon arrival at the Samuels home and getting no response entered to find three bodies strewn over the living room and hall of the home.

The bodies of a man, later found to be the defendant, and Mrs. Zula Dell were in the living room and Mrs. Samuels was down the hall.

Horodnycky raised up on one arm and groaned, Bacon reported. A part of the man's face had been blown away by what proved to have been a shotgun blast.

The officers found a pool of blood at the telephone and a trail of blood back to where Horodnycky was lying on the floor.

There were several shotgun cartridges in a box and two spent shells on the floor. At first the officers found no firearms.

Bacon said there were three holes "about the size of your fist" in the ceiling and three bullet holes in the wall. Underneath a couch in the living room, Bacon said, a shotgun and a .22 caliber rifle was found.

A .38 caliber pistol later was found in the trash.

Bacon said there was blood around the shotgun and the stock was covered with blood.

At this point the state introduced several pictures taken by officers at the time.

Bacon testified that he had answered telephone calls to the Samuels home on several previous occasions and that the defendant had been arrested for disturbances there.

He said Mrs. Samuels appeared afraid to sign complaints against Horodnycky whom he said had been living at the Samuels home.

Bacon had even reported that Horodnycky and Mrs. Samuels were common law man and wife.

On cross examination the defense hammered at the sergeant's theory that the holes in the ceiling were holes from shotgun blasts. Bacon finally admitted that no shotgun pellets were ever retrieved from the holes to substantiate his theory.

Sgt. Bacon said he backed up his theory by the fact that there was residue in the barrel of the shotgun found at the scene. He also admitted that residue would remain in such a gun indefinitely if it were not cleaned and the residue in the gun at the time he found it might have been from a firing much earlier.

Dowlen called to the witness stand a funeral director, special agent for the Treasury Department, a medical technologist, a medical doctor who had treated Horodnycky after the shooting, a pathologist and two F.B.I. agents from Washington, D.C., all testifying to the technical collecting of evidence that was performed.

Dr. Lewis Finney, a surgeon from Amarillo, testified that he had treated Horodnycky at the emergency room of Northwest Texas Hospital following the shooting. He said the defendant had powder burns on his face and such burns would not be present if the shotgun (see JURY, page 13)

Greatest Show Theme For WTSU Homecoming

"The Greatest Show On Earth" becomes more than a circus slogan when West Texas State University holds its annual Homecoming festivities this week.

The "Greatest Show" theme will prevail on campus as students and former students gather for events ranging from barbecues to banquets, pep rallies to beauty pageant and skydiving to football.

"The entire Homecoming week will be big," said Gary Story of Hereford, student body president.

The activities began Monday with three skydivers from the WTSU Sport Parachute Club jumping onto the campus and end Saturday night at Buffalo Stadium with a football game against North Texas State.

Another highlight will be the crowning Friday night of the first Miss WTSU. The winner will serve as Homecoming queen and as the university's official hostess throughout the year.

The West Texas Ex-Students, Inc., headed by

Duane Byars of Amarillo as president and Hank Brown as Executive director, has a number of events planned, including honoring the 1921 and 1945 graduating classes and presenting two distinguished alumni awards.

Ken Kennedy and Wayne Mosley, both of Amarillo, and Mike Winston of Brownfield, who have more than 600 parachute jumps between them, jumped about 3,000 feet and landed on the campus Monday morning.

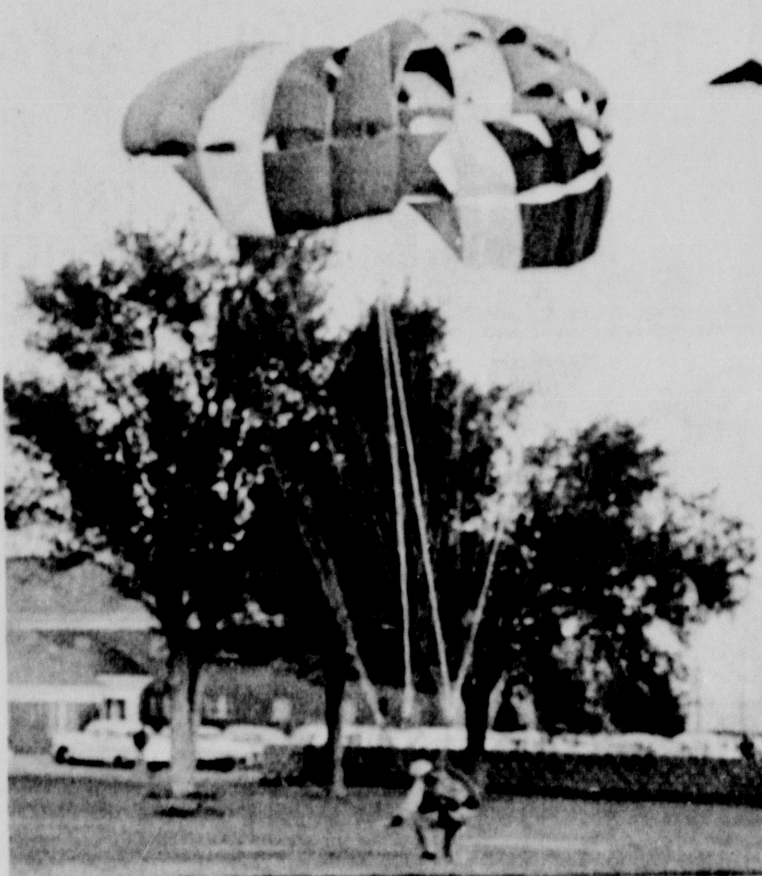

A pep rally, bonfire and dance Thursday night will start the traditional Homecoming activities.

A group of volunteer runners will carry a lighted torch from Western Plaza in Amarillo to the campus, where the bonfire will be lit in a field on the south side of the tennis courts. The torch bearers will leave Amarillo about 6 p.m., run the 18 miles along U.S. 87 to Canyon, arriving around 8 p.m.

At 10 a.m. Friday a university-wide assembly and pep rally will take place in the men's gymnasium. It is the only occasion during the

Shooting Wounds Canyon Waitress

A Canyon waitress was shot in the throat in the early morning hours Monday in front of her home at 1401 Sixth Avenue.

In serious condition at St. Anthony's Hospital, a bullet still lodged in her jaw, is Mrs. Thelma R. Martin, 42 years old, who has been working as a waitress in the Cowboy Cafe.

Earl Head, 60, was arrested at his home at 804 Twenty-First Street, about an hour after the shooting. Making the arrest were Chief of Police Calvin Costley and Sheriff L.S. "Slim" Johnston.

Costley said Mrs. Martin told her daughter, Mrs. Brenda Strout, and City Patrolman Jim Warren that it was Head who had shot her.

Mrs. Martin was shot once in the left side of the throat. The pellet lodged in her right jaw.

Investigating police set the time of the shooting at about 2 o'clock. Head was arrested at about 3.

Officers were summoned at 2:06 by Mrs. Strout, who lives in the home with her mother. Mrs. Strout told authorities she heard two shots and a scream.

She rushed into the front yard to find her mother lying at the curb in the street in front of the house. She summoned police who sent an ambulance to the residence.

"Earl did it, Earl Head shot me," Mrs. Martin was quoted by Chief Costley as having told Mrs. Strout and Patrolman Warren.

Costley said Mrs. Martin was interviewed again at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon by City Patrolman Jack Hill and she reaffirmed her earlier statements that it was Head who had shot her.

Mrs. Martin was taken to Neblett Hospital and then transferred to St. Anthony's in Amarillo. Doctors there said it might be some time before the bullet is removed.

Police made a fruitless (see SHOOTING, page 9)

Gerald Needing Blood

Dan Gerald, who grew up in Canyon, is hospitalized in Dallas with leukemia and is in need of blood, according to word received here this week.

Gerald is a brother of Charlie Gerald and is the son of Tom Gerald of Canyon.

He is in Wadley Research Institute Cancer Hospital in Dallas and has already had 60 pints of blood in transfusion (see GERALD, page 13)

Consultant Agrees With Zoning Group

Marvin Springer of Dallas, consultant in urban planning to the City of Canyon, Monday night recommended proposed Interstate 27 be located two miles east of U.S. 87 adjacent Canyon.

This is the same route proposed by the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Springer discussed the five proposed routes for the interstate highway before a joint meeting of the Canyon

City Commission, planning and zoning commission and representatives from the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

The urban planner said several of the routes proposed by the Texas Highway Department were "most unsatisfactory."

"The possibility of going west of U.S. 87 and one along the present alignment are both most unsatisfactory," he said. "You would have to clear out a block wide on this side of the university. You would create a barrier or build an elevated structure in the air. It would be like building a wall with just a limited amount of gates."

Of a proposed route picking up Farm Road 1541 and joining U.S. 87 South, Springer said "you just don't see any of Canyon from (see SPRINGER, page 13)

Election Order Gets Court Okay

Randall County commissioners court Monday passed an election order for the Nov. 3 election which set up instruction courses for election officials.

Schools for precinct election officials will be held Oct. 20 in the court house annex in Amarillo and Oct. 22, Oct. 27 and Oct. 29 in the court house at Canyon. All will begin at 7:30 p.m.

A school for presiding judges will be held at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 26 in the Amarillo annex and for clerks at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 30.

Polls in Amarillo will open at 7 a.m. and at 8 a.m. elsewhere in the county. All polls will close at 7 p.m.

Paul Ferguson, manager of the Buffalo Lake Wildlife Refuge, presented the county with a check for $4,980.66 which is paid the county by the Federal Government in lieu of taxes.

In other business, the court authorized the advertising for bids for retopping the parking area at the South Amarillo court house annex.

Lions Club Candy Sale Under Way

Canyon Lions Club began its annual Halloween candy sale Wednesday.

Two teams called John Boone's Bears and Frank Castleberry's Cougars are canvassing the town.

The large bag of candy also may be purchased for $1 on the square Saturday or from Bill Wilson in the Court House weekdays.

Money raised through candy sales will go to support Lions Club projects such as purchasing eyeglasses for needy children.

Joe Gibson, Lions Club president, is candy sale chairman.

Few Clues Found In Bank Robbery

Officers at mid-week said there were no new leads in the $2,500 hold-up of First State Bank of Happy Thursday of last week.

Two gunmen—one believed to be a woman—walked into the bank during the noon hour Thursday and took the money in currency and small change.

An FBI agent said some $2,322 in currency, $100 in dimes and $50 in pennies was taken.

The gunmen wore Halloween masks although Bob Pulsipher, the bank's cashier, said the masks were not grotesque. He said the pair forced himself, Bank President Carl Small and teller Gussie Barnett to the back of the room and made them face the wall.

The crooks then proceeded to go through the teller's drawer and the vault. The safe was on time lock and could not be opened.

Pulsipher said the pair was in the bank about 10 minutes. The robbery was pulled off at 12:35. The bandits left the building at 12:45 after telling the bank attendants not to move for 10 minutes.

Pulsipher said one of the gunmen told them that a (see ROBBERY, page 13)

Early Snow Cools Area

One of the earliest snows of the century and sub-freezing temperatures hit Canyon and the Panhandle Thursday.

A blanket of snow covered the ground during the early morning hours but melted during the day. Snow continued falling most of the day but melted as it hit the ground.

Gauges kept by the Geography Department at West Texas State University recorded .20 of an inch. Winds up to 40 miles an hour might have prevented accurate recording of the moisture. Although several accidents over the region were attributed to the storm, Canyon police said it caused none here.

Bufs Meet Old Rival Saturday

West Texas State University's Buffaloes renew their football series with North Texas State University at 8 p.m. Saturday in Buffalo Bowl.

The homecoming clash for the Buffaloes will be their second test this season against Missouri Valley Conference opposition. The Buffs earlier downed Wichita State, 42-0; but Saturday's clash is expected to be considerably tougher.

North Texas brings only a 1-4 record into the clash, but the Eagles have what could be the toughest defense to be faced by the Buffaloes this season.

No team has been able to score more than 23 points against coach Rod Rust's Eagles. San Diego State managed a 23-0 win and winning coach Don Coryell said following that contest that North Texas State's defense was the toughest faced by his team in several years.

The Eagles hold a 37-13 win over Drake this season.

This will be the second MVC foe the Buffs have faced since being voted into the conference this past summer. The game will not count for the conference title, but the Buffs will play for the crown as soon as schedules can be arranged.

The Buffaloes first played North Texas in 1923. North Texas took a 14-6 decision in that game. West Texas took a 21-13 decision in 1964, the last time the two schools met in a football game.

In the overall series, North Texas holds a 3-8 lead.

Leading the Eagles this year is quarterback Joe Milton. He has hit on 31 of 67 passes for 484 yards and two touchdowns. His chief target for passing has been full (see BUFFS, page 13)

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew hit the liberals another telling blow in his appearance in Amarillo Monday night.

Agnew accused the Council for a Liveable World of being an ultra-liberal outfit that has dabbled indiscriminately in politics without having the searching scrutiny of the press turned on it.

He said the council gave $20,000 to George McGovern's campaign and that since McGovern won by a scant 600 votes you might say the council elected him to the Senate.

Agnew went on to declare that the Council for a Liveable World has as its primary goal that of seeing the United States denuded of all its defenses.

He took another cut at what he termed the liberal journalists. He noted that if the American Medical Association gave $10 to a conservative cause The New York Times would tell the next day whether it was in cash or by check.

Then he declared that neither The Times nor any other large newspaper has had a word to say about the doings of the Council for a Liveable World.

The vice president rolled up his sleeves and campaigned for George Bush. He said Bush must be sent to the Senate because the President needs him on the team there.

He asserted that Lloyd Bentsen would be without influence in the Senate since he would find little favor with the William Fullbrights and George McGovern whose darling Ralph Yarborough he defeated in the primary.

Agnew pointed out that if Bentsen goes to the Senate he will have to vote to keep the Fullbrights, Kennedys and McGovern in control when the Senate committees are organized.

I must say this statement by the vice president will have profound influence on how I cast my vote in the Senate race.

Paul Eggers, Republican candidate for governor, preceded Agnew at the speaker's microphone.

He said that if he is elected governor he will make it possible for the courts to give criminals a "real life sentence." This is demagoguery and Eggers must realize it.

If he were elected governor, the best he could hope for would be two years of stalemate in state government in which to make plans to capture the legislature for the GOP.

So few GOP candidates for legislative offices were fielded this time that even as governor Paul Eggers would indeed be without influence in the legislature.

Preston Smith has done more for West Texas State University than any governor in recent history. Canyon would be foolish to vote against him.

It looks like Grady Hazlewood has made the complete switch to the Republican Party. He sat at the honor table near the head table during the vice president's visit.

The Old Gray Fox was even introduced as an honor guest.

Hazlewood has courage and to spare. I'm just sorry his days in the Texas Senate are at an end.

I was surprised to find security so lax at the Agnew dinner.

about 80 got up and followed him. This included press people from the national wire services and television.

I mingled with this group and was able to walk out the door of the Amarillo Civic Center within a few feet of the guest of honor.

Cars were waiting and whisked the group to the airport.

Paul Eggers almost missed a ride. He failed to catch the cars that took his own group and was forced to make the trip to the airport in a police car.

I left the Civic Center Monday night feeling that I had met a great American. I had expected much from Spiro T. Agnew and I can tell you that I was not disappointed.

If this country is to be saved from its own folly, it will be fearless men like the vice president who will do it.

As Agnew himself has said, surely we have come to realize that we cannot cure our ills by simply pouring money on them.

In just 2½ months 34 years of Randall County county government will be history.

For the first time in that span, Clarence Beckman will no longer be on the commissioners court. Clarence took office as a young commissioner in 1936 and has served continuously since that time.

Redistricting of the county's commissioner precincts did Clarence out of a precinct and he will be retiring from public life Jan. 1.

Mrs. Clyde Warwick, whom we are proud to list as publisher emeritus of The Canyon News and Randall County's official historian, has called my attention to a grave error in reporting in a recent issue.

We erroneously reported that Lee Conner Hale was the first white child born in the city of Canyon. Mrs. Warwick points out that this honor belongs to Mrs. Mamie Conner Bradford.

Mr. Hale, who died recently in Tennessee, was the first white boy born here.

He was named in honor of Mrs. Bradford's father, L. G. Conner. Mr. Conner gave the new baby a lot in the city of Canyon.

The Gallery Sets Opening

"The Gallery," a north Amarillo teaching art gallery will hold a three-day opening beginning tomorrow and climaxing with a formal ceremony Sunday at 2:00 p.m. with Mayor J. Ernest Stroud in attendance.

Guest of honor will be Chris Gikas, Associate Professor of Art, at Eastern New Mexico University, at Portales, New Mexico. Gikas, a WTSU graduate, will present three demonstrations Sunday following the reception. He will demonstrate in oil, watercolor, and pastel techniques.

Owners of The Gallery are Dorothy Sparkman, and Mary Mitchell, Amarillo artists. The shop is located in the Trades Fair Shopping Center.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

President Nixon has implied that he is depending on the silent majority of honest, productive citizens to support him in his efforts to keep our nation—and the world—together. The destructive dissidents have implied that they are depending on the silent majority of "stupid squares" to remain silent while they tear our nation—and the world—apart.

Probably both assumptions are correct—so far. But two such opposing ideologies cannot coexist indefinitely; one will eventually destroy the other. People who intend to remain silent, secure in the fact that honest, productive citizens are in the vast majority, should recall what one lighted match can do to a mighty forest.

There are several reasons good men remain silent in the midst of controversy: One is that they are busy being productive. And constructive critics are usually branded as bigots, radicals, and troublemakers when they speak out on political and social issues (they have to wait until they are dead to be called reformers), while destructive ones are "crusaders for freedom, realism, and equality."

If loyal Americans continue to stand silently by while ingrates destroy the nation, we are doomed. "All it takes for evil men to rule is for good men to keep silent."

Everytime a government official—from the President to the humblest patrolman—is assassinated, a little of our country dies with him.

The recent wave of assassinations has been branded as the pranks of cranks instead of the plots of criminals. And the assassins have been coddled and lionized; not one has been legally executed.

A strong nation does not die easily. Our nation began to die more than seven years ago when this reign of terror was launched in Dallas, Texas. Since that day, the silent majority has stood by and watched the proudest civilized nation in history degenerate into a jungle.

We have stood aside while a puddle of perverted idealism has become an ocean of destructive dissension.

We have silently watched while American cities have been sacked and pillaged.

We have kept silent while little men in big places have spawned violence and lawlessness across our land.

We have mutely watched while the cages were unlocked and the wild beasts of crime have been unleashed upon us.

We have said nothing while sorcerers of appeasement have conditioned a once-proud free people to peace at any price.

We have kept silent while the greatest educational system in the world has been taken over by radical socializers, and the educators are being eliminated.

We have watched our universities being taken over by unwashed children who cannot even manage their own lives.

We have kept still while destroyers have dominated our news media, pornography has poisoned our literature, and the filthy and perverted have taken over our television and motion picture screens.

What is the solution?

The latest Presidential commission claims it is President Nixon's responsibility to solve the nation's problems. Those who agree can continue to do nothing to stem the destructive flood which may eventually drown us all.

The solution for man's ills is the same as it was 4000 years ago; it is found in II Chronicles 7:14. And one of the evil ways we need to turn from is keeping silent while evil forces destroy our nation. (see OUR WORLD, page 9)

Collins To Write For Houston Post

Ray Collins, former WT baseball player and "Prairie" sportswriter, has recently joined the Houston Post sports staff.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Collins of 407 Foster Lane, Collins began his journalistic career at WT then transferred to the University of Texas to complete his degree.

After college, Collins began covering schoolboy sports for the Corpus Christi

Callers-Times. When he announced that he would be leaving the Callers to join the Houston Post staff the Corpus paper stated that Collins is "... a fine writer, an astute judge of talent, and has a love for his job that not many in the business have."

Collins goes to an even tougher assignment now. Can you imagine anything rougher than riding herd over all the Houston area high schools. ... it is my guess that Ray Collins will do well for the Post, and for the sports page readers of the area. ... the real losers will be the South Texans. ...

The 34-year-old sportswriter is married, and he and his wife, Rebecca, have three children, Jan, 10; Linda, 8; and Tommy, 5.

Odus Mitchell To Be Honored

Odus Mitchell, who won more letters at West Texas State than any other athlete in the history of the school, will be guest of honor of the North Texas State University Alumni Association at a barbeque at 5 p.m. Saturday at the Canyon Community Center.

Mitchell served as head football coach at North Texas State for 21 years. West Texas and North Texas clash in a football battle at 8 p.m. that night in Buffalo Bowl.

The West Texas State University Ex-Students will present Mitchell with a WTSU letter blanket and the North Texas State Alumni Association will present him and Mrs. Mitchell with lifetime memberships to that organization.

Wayne Adams, director of the North Texas State alumni group, said, "The Alumni Association of North Texas State University believes it would be appropriate to start this new relationship between the two Texas members of the Missouri Valley Conference by honoring a man who has served both institutions in an outstanding manner."

Among his former teammates expected to be present are Mitchell Jones, Canyon; Grady Burson, Frank Brown, Floyd Golden, all of Amarillo; Ray Bivens, Tulia; Will Anderson, Lamesa; Evert Adams, Hale Center; Guy Fuller, Spearman; Ward Golden, Dimmitt; Nay Hale, Finis Vaughn, both of Lubbock; Lem Sone, Pampa; and Raymond Thompson, Vega.

Mitchell, who was placed in the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame this year, coached for 42 years. He directed high school teams at Slaton, Childress, Pampa and Marshall from 1927 through 1940. He graduated from West Texas State in 1925, after earning 16 letters in four years.

Floats. . . Blood, Sweat, Tears, and Paper

Midnight oil is being burned all over Canyon as the float building crews get 3:00 p.m. Saturday Homecoming Parade.

Thirteen organizations have entered floats in the annual parade. As of last week several did not have a building in which to construct the colorful masses.

Chairmen of the float building committees not only have to order the supplies needed and find the space to build the float, but they have to set certain work rules, make sure the float is finished on time, and that it can move down the parade route.

The float production isn't the first step in the project, however. First the parade theme is set by the student senate each year. This year's theme is "The Greatest Show On Earth." Then organizations take the theme back to the campus organizations and creative club members sketch designs that reflect the theme, members vote on the favorite design, then turn the sketch in to the senate office. If club designs conflict, the one received earliest will be approved and "it's back to the drawing board" for the other organization.

The real work begins, when students start asking for building locations they can use for about a week and a half, that has lights, heat, if possible, and can house the large soon-to-be-float. Once that major item is found, the committee chairman can begin to look for a sponsor. Merchants are asked to pay $100 to sponsor a club float and even then the money will not cover all the expenses. Sponsoring merchants have their store or business advertised on the float during the Homecoming parade.

Without a sponsor a club either has to dig deeper into the club treasury to pay for the building materials or give up building one altogether.

Next, the float chairman must find some way to move the float down the street. A jeep is usually successful. . . if one can be made available to the club for a week or so. Some organizations use a foreign made car, and others simply pull their float with a new car.

With the mobilization decided upon, materials are ordered and the club's elbow grease is put into use. Floats are constructed with wood for the frame; chicken wire to hold the napkins in place; colorful napkins by the thousands, spray paint if different colors are needed, poster board for the club's symbol, theme title, and sponsor; and sometimes glitter, crepe paper, and paper mache.

Organizations must also select the persons who will ride on the finished product, make or find them costumes to wear and build them a sturdy place on which to sit or stand.

When the float is finished, walkie talkies are borrowed and used to guide the floats down the parade course for viewers to see.

The homecoming committee awards trophies to the best of three classes, fraternity, sorority, and independent, climaxing the hundreds of hours of blood, sweat and tears of club members the public never sees.

Organizations entered in the float contest are Chi Omega, Faith Student Center, Zeta Tau Alpha, Scabbard and Blade, Alpha Delta Pi, Sigma Nu, Phi Delta Theta, P. E. Majors Club, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Zeta, Kappa Alpha Order, Alpha Kappa Psi, and Lambda Chi Alpha.

Miss WTSU Pageant Friday, Miss Texas To Appear

The first Miss West Texas State University will be crowned in royal fashion by Miss Texas, Belinda Myrick, at the Miss WTSU Pageant to be held at the Activities Center at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

The winner will be selected from the Top Ten Finalists by a five person judging board after a day of pageant related activities. Miss WTSU will reign over the rest of the Homecoming activities and serve as the official hostess for the school throughout the year.

All thirty-one talented coeds will be presented in formal at the 10:00 a.m. Homecoming assembly held Friday in the field house. After a luncheon, the girls will spend the afternoon in preliminary swimsuit competition, interviews, and talent rehearsals.

All contestants will appear on stage in the Activities Center in formal for the Top Ten announcement and the public will then view bathing suit competition, and Top Ten Talent Review organized by Mrs. Dixie Dice Watson and Mrs. E.L. Parge both of Amarillo.

The Miss WTSU contest will be conducted almost exactly like the Miss Texas and Miss America contests. Even the judges will not know who the winner will be until the official announcement. Their results will be independently tabulated.

The chief contest difference concerns the talent competition, which will not be considered as part of the preliminary judging. Talent, however, will be considered in the selection of the Top Five Finalists and the selection of Miss WTSU.

Gary Cook, assistant Dean of Student Life, indicated that the new winner may be sent to represent the university at the Miss Texas Pageant. "This will depend, of course, on the money raised from the pageant."

Miss WTSU will receive a crown, a bouquet of roses, a wardrobe, and her name will be engraved on a 3 foot trophy, made especially for the Miss WTSU Pageant by Custom Trophies of Amarillo.

Judges for the contest are Mrs. John Pitts, co-ordinator for the Miss Wheatheart of the Nation contest; Mrs. Peggy McMahon, Miss Texas sponsor; Mr. Robert Hoffman of the Amarillo College faculty and Symphony; Mrs. H.Q. Maxwell, director of the Miss Teenage Nebraska Pageant, and Mr. Chuck Thompson, president of the Amarillo Jaycees and two years co-ordinator for the Miss Amarillo Pageant.

Tickets for the pageant are $1.25 with identification card and $1.50 without the card.

The entrants are:

Chemistry Dept. Gets ACS Approval

The influential American Chemical Society (ACS) has approved the Department of Chemistry at West Texas State University, Dr. Gene Crowder, department chairman, said Thursday.

Such approval is beneficial to the department and its students, he said.

"Several chemical companies will not send representatives to interview at institutions which have not been approved by ACS," Crowder added.

"Graduates from ACS schools are given access to its employment services," he said. "Also college graduates can become members of the society three to four years sooner than those from non-approved schools."

Dr. Claude Boatman, who headed the department from 1960 until his retirement this fall, initiated steps leading to ACS approval four years ago.

"We had to change the level of some of our courses," Crowder said. "Our advanced courses had to meet certain standards and some prerequisites had to be included."

Crowder said the ACS seal will help West Texas State obtain chemistry students who in the past have gone to approved universities.

"Some foreign countries will not allow students to attend schools in the United States which have not received ACS approval," he said.

Another advantage to ACS sanction, he added, is when fellowships are awarded to college graduates in chemistry, those from approved schools are usually considered first.

... direct from the manufacturer

Natural gas is the healthiest, most economical way to heat your house this winter. Gas is economical because it's the direct way to produce heat — you don't pay to convert heat to another energy source and then back to heat. And with gas you can afford to bring clean outside air into your home this winter instead of having to re-heat the same old stale air after time.

So, if you're building or remodeling, be sure to specify gas heating. Gas is the "natural" fuel. It's like buying direct from the manufacturer. Call your heating contractor, plumber, or Pioneer Natural Gas.

Cage Press Day Is Set Thursday

West Texas State University's Buffalo basketball team hosts members of the press and opens its practice Thursday afternoon.

Members of the area news media will be guests of the Buffalo basketball team for a noon luncheon in the East Cafeteria and picture-taking and interviews are slated later in the West Texas State Field House. Head coach Dennis Walling will put his charges through their first practice session following the press day activities.

Walling and assistant coach Lonnie Nichols have their work cut out for them during the practice sessions. They must introduce the players to the Buffalo types of offense and defense.

Returning from last year's 12-13 squad is only one returning starter-6-6 post man Ed Fitzgerald. The 230-pound Colorado Springs senior tallied 12.6 points per game and pulled down 9.5 rebounds last year.

Other lettermen returning are 6-10 John Burkhalter from Amarillo, 6-3 Lou Konig and 6-6 Cleotis Reece.

The bulk of the team will be made up of talented junior college transfers and sophomores up from a 21-5 search of Head's small home for a pistol. Until the bullet is removed from Mrs. Martin authorities are in the dark as to what kind of gun was used.

Another married daughter, Mrs. Gloria Blasen-game, and teenage daughter live at the Martin home, according to Chief Costley.

Head denied any knowledge of the shooting. Sheriff Johnston quoted him as having said he had returned home at midnight from the Playboy Lounge in Amarillo and had gone to bed.

He said he was asleep at the time of the shooting. Sheriff Johnston said the engine of Head's car was still hot at the time of the arrest.

Head, an employee of Randall County Feed Yards, told authorities he and Mrs. Martin had gone together for "five or six months."

Head is a widower and Mrs. Martin is a widow. Head, a laborer in the Canyon area for many years, was charged with assault with intent to murder. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace W.A. "Bill" Wilson and released from jail Monday morning on $1,500 bond.

News Brief

David Schuette of Canyon will star as handsome Frank Butler in Irving Berlin's musical comedy "Annie Get Your Gun" which opens Friday at the Amarillo Little Theatre and will run October 17 and 23-25.

The show will feature a cast of fifty and will be the first production of the 1970-71 A.L.T. season.

Bufs Stave Off Husky Fourth-Quarter Drive

West Texas State University's Buffaloes were forced to hold off a fourth quarter rally by the Northern Illinois Huskies to salvage a 24-22 football victory Saturday night in DeKalb, Ill.

Leading 24-7 with 6:11 remaining in the game, the Buffs had to fight for their lives as the hosts tallied 15 points before Ralph Anderson picked off a pass in the fading seconds to end any further threats.

The victory pushed the Buffaloes' season record to 3-1 and set up this week's homecoming clash against North Texas State University. The Buffs host the Eagles at 8 p.m. Saturday in Buffalo Bowl.

North Texas will bring a 0-4 record into the clash, but no foe has been able to score more than 23 points against the rugged Eagle defenders. San Diego State, which is unbeaten through five games, defeated North Texas, 23-0. San Diego coach Don Coryell said after that game that the Eagles had the toughest defense his teams have faced in several years. Brigham Young edged the Eagles, 10-7; Louisville took a 13-2 decision, and Tampa managed an 18-7 win.

Friday Open Date For Eagles

The Canyon Eagles have an open date this Friday and then next week take on the Loveland Lobos in the first conference game of the season.

The Lobos are new to the district and will be visiting Canyon for the contest. The Eagles play two more conference games at home — those with Perryton and Tulia.

They will go on the road for outings with Dumas and Muleshoe.

The Eagles are licking their wounds this week after a 26-3 defeat at the hands of the Pampa Harvesters.

Canyon scored first in the Pampa contest when Frank Belcher intercepted a Harvester pass on the Pampa 25 and ran it back to the 6. After three downs failed to score, Edwin McBride kicked a field goal.

But the Harvesters hammered the Eagles for four touchdowns and the Eagles never managed to score again.

Clifford Prichard led his team again with 67 yards. He had gained more than 100 in each of the three previous ball games.

Canyon managed only 6 first downs while the Harvesters accumulated 15. The Eagles recovered one Harvester fumble and intercepted two passes.

Pampa gained 255 yards rushing and 53 in the air for a total of 308 while Canyon picked up only 87 with an additional 38 in the air for 125.

The Eagles go into conference play with a 4-1 season record.

Against Northern Illinois, the Buffaloes were able to control the ball during most of the contest—running 83 offensive plays to 63 for the Huskies.

Fullback Ramse Faleafine carried the ball 29 times for 161 yards. The rushing attempts set a personal high for Faleafine. He once carried the ball 28 times in a junior college contest.

Quarterback Ed Holwig hit on six of 13 passes for 56 yards, bringing his season total to 31 of 59 for 435 yards and three touchdowns.

Rocky Thompson tallied twice to bring his season scoring total to eight touchdowns for 48 points. He picked up 84 yards and now has 450 net rushing yards for the year. Faleafine boosted his total to 345 through four games.

Daryl Wynn, Follett junior, caught two passes and continues to lead the Buffaloes in that department with 11 for 172 yards.

First Fish Harvest, Cats Large, Tasty

The first Catfish Harvest at the McNeill and Christopher Fish Farm is underway and the frying pan ready fish are jumping.

The farm, located ½ mile east of Canyon city limits on the Palo Duro Highway, has about 10,000 pounds of channel catfish ready to be sold.

The commercial feeding firm, feed the fish a prepared diet. The diet eliminates the usual fish smell.

The fish, which usually weigh around 1½ pounds, sell at the farm for 90 cents a pound, live weight. Fishermen can either catch their own or the owners will catch the fish with a net.

The Fish Farm opens at 10:00 a.m. "in time for lunch", Christopher noted, and closes at 6 p.m.

The fish may be processed and wrapped for 10 cents each.

The fish farm sits on four acres of land and has two ponds. The breeding stock was hauled into Canyon from a registered catfish farm in Arkansas.

The farm "fills the area's need for fresh fish," Christopher stated, "and provides additional recreation in the Panhandle."

In addition to the regular channel catfish raised on the Canyon Fish Farm, the owners have acquired several albino catfish for their breeding herd. The pure white fish will be ready for buyers next fall. "The meat is as pink as a salmon," Christopher noted.

This year the fish will only be harvested during the fall of the year, but the owners hope to be able to offer the fish for year round eating by next year.

Macky Bosley holds one of the channel catfish that are ready to harvest at the McNeill and Christopher Fish Farm. The fish weigh an average of 1½ pounds.

WTSU Regents Meeting Is Set For 2 P.M. Friday

The Board of Regents of West Texas State University meet at 2 p.m. Friday in the Activities Center on campus. Cloyce Box of Dallas is chairman.

The occasion marks the first anniversary of the university's separate Board of Regents. It was one year ago that the new board, authorized by the 1969 Texas Legislature and appointed by Gov. Preston Smith, convened for the first time.

President James P. Cornette, university president, will ask the board to consider joining other state institutions in attacking the validity of a new federal law regarding unemployment compensation.

Harpsichord Recital, Scheduled Sunday

Dale Peters of the North Texas State University music faculty will be the guest of West Texas State University Sunday for a 3:00 p.m. lecture and 8:15 p.m. recital in the Fine Arts Theatre.

The lecture topic will be "The Golden Age of the Harpsichord." The harpsichord, a favorite instrument during the 16th and 17th centuries, was replaced by the piano in later centuries. The WTSU harpsichord was built by William Dowd.

The Sunday evening recital will serve as a dedication of the instrument to the university.

"With the coming of fidelity and stereo recordings, music of that period is being played today so that much 20th Century interest is involved with old instruments and music," Peters said, "Thus modern builders are making the harpsichord more available today."

The artist is being sponsored by the Faculty Special Programs Committee.

Beauty Shopping

Carol Wright, Perryton junior, is ready for the two day list of WT Homecoming activities to get underway, and they will Friday. The charming varsity cheerleader is a member of the Mary E. Hudspeth Honor Society, Phi Gamma Nu, and Chi Omega sorority. Carol is an accounting major and lives in Shirley Hall.

Internationals Host Festive Food Supper

Home cookin' means something different to International students than Southern fried chicken or a 10 oz. steak and they proved it Saturday night with their International "Potluck Supper."

The event was held at the Eduard Schmutzer home west of Canyon and the buffet table was lined with a potpourri of dishes that were "out of this world." Some fifty persons attended the affair.

When asked how to make Pulav, a native dish from India, Prabhakar Gaitonde replied, "I just shut my eyes, put everything I can find into the bowl and then decorate the top."

"What do you serve with it?"

"Alka Seltzer," replied the group's past president.

To make the dish combine the following:

PULAV
From India

Cook a package of rice according to directions, drain and add chopped cooked chicken, or shrimp, cauliflower, potatoes, green peas, tomatoes, and raisins. Mix well, then garnish the top with cashew nuts, tomato slices, radishes, raisins, and parsley. The amounts? . . . "Use your imagination."

Assisting Gaitonde in the undertaking was Vithal Pai, also from India.

Miss Lillie Hudnley, retired missionary brought a Lebanese salad to the event.

LEBANESE SALAD
From Lebanon

Combine:
½ bag of cracked wheat (4-5 cups)
1 medium tomato (chopped)
1½ bunches of green onions (chopped)

1 small head of lettuce (chopped)
1 medium green pepper (chopped fine)

"The dish is called the National Salad in Lebanon," Miss Hudnley replied.

Cups of a delicious pink liquid were served to the guests. It was called Israeli Fruit Soup and was brought by Marty Citron.

ISRAELI FRUIT SOUP
From Israel

1 cantaloupe cut fine
1 quart strawberries
1 lb. green grapes
4 cooking apples
1 kiwi (optional)
1 peach (optional)
Cut finely all ingredients, then simmer all ingredients (except grapes) for 20 minutes with 6 cups of water, ½ cup of lemon juice, and ¾ cup of sugar. Remove from heat and add grapes, 1½ cups of fresh orange juice and run the mixture through a food puree. To the mixture add 6 to 12 oz. of sour cream and chill.

Thailanders Pat Charnveja, Punthip Charnveja, and Amara Boonyapakdi brought Chicken Curry to the festivities. Some spices have been substituted in this recipe, they related.

CHICKEN CURRY
From Thailand

1 raw chicken (dressed and chopped)
Saute in skillet with cooking oil till brown.
Salt to taste
Add:

1 tablespoon curry powder
¾ teaspoon of thyme
¾ teaspoon pepper
Dash of soy sauce
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon garlic powder
½ teaspoon of Accent

Mix well, add 1½ to 2 cups of milk, cook for 3 minutes and serve with rice.

Christina Wong from Taiwan brought a Chinese dish called Jaz-tze. To make the typical Chinese dish do the following:

JAZ-TZE
From China

Make 15-20 thick biscuit-like crusts rolled thin about 4" in diameter. Set these aside.

Then chop
1 small cabbage
1 bunch of green onions
Combine with:
2 pounds of ground beef
Season with salt, Accent, and soy sauce to taste.

Place the meat mixture inside the dough pinching the edges of the dough together, sealing in the mixture. Drop each Jaz-tze into boiling water, adding more water to the pan as it boils up. Let it boil up about three different times cooking the meat and dough for 4 or 5 minutes.

Another main dish that was brought to the "Potluck Supper" was Swedish Eggplant Casserole. That recipe is as follows:

SWEDISH EGGPLANT CASSEROLE
From Sweden

Boil till tender:
1 large eggplant with
1 tablespoon of sugar
½ teaspoon of salt

A few drops of lemon
Drain and Mash
Add the following ingredients:

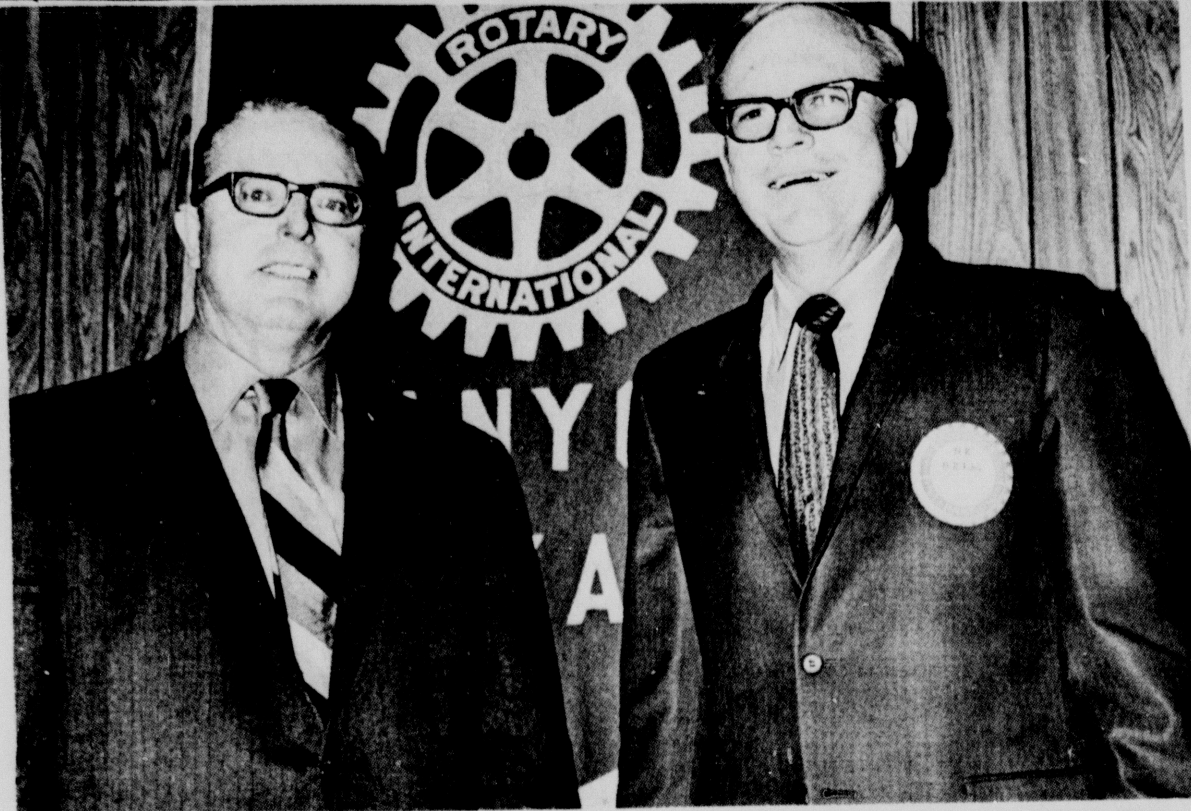

1 cup grated cheddar cheese
½ cup bread or cracker crumbs
2 eggs
2 tablespoons butter
Blend and bake in greased casserole dish for 20 minutes at 400 degrees, sprinkle grated cheese on top to serve.

Foreign dishes of all types were served at the festive food "Potluck Dinner" held Saturday in the Eduard Schmutzer home. Some fifty Internationals and invited guests attended the affair. Pictured are Pat Charnveja, Punthip Charnveja and Amara Boonyapakdi all from Thailand.

Rotary Governor of District 573, W. W. Pyeatt, visited with the Canyon Rotary Monday and Tuesday. The district official discussed the club's planned activities with H. R. Fulton, Canyon Rotary president, during his stay.

Rotary Governor Commends Canyon

District Rotary Governor W.W. Pyeatt, commended the Canyon Rotary for their fine programs, bulletin, and officers at the noon luncheon Tuesday.

"You have one of the finest bulletins in the district and enjoy good programs here in Canyon," Pyeatt stated.

He told the Canyon group that their committees were doing a fine job and that their projects were worthy.

"There are 14,400 clubs around the world," Pyeatt stated, "and wherever you go you are a great part of Rotary."

"Share Rotary with as many people as possible," the Rotary Governor continued.

Pyeatt has been presenting his "Governor's Message to the Clubs," 46 of them in district 573, for the past four months.

The visiting Rotary governor was honored at a salad supper with Rotarians and their Rotary Anns Monday night. The Canyon Rotary then conducted a Club Assembly and Rotary Anns adjourned to the H.R. Fulton home for an informal social hour.

Pyeatt was the guest speaker at the Tuesday meeting.

H.R. Fulton is president of the Canyon Rotary.

Log Cabins In Miniature Built By E.D. Morris

BY CAROL CRAIN

Pioneers built log cabins out of what was readily available and E.D. Morris builds them the same way in miniature.

Morris was born in Fannin County December 24, 1889 in a log cabin his father built and knows how to put the cabins together.

Three years ago, a friend, Isam Hollabaugh, started the former cowboy making magazine boxes, pencil holders and other novelty items from magazine pages. Morris now makes picture frames, flower vases and log cabins in the craft.

"I pick up scraps to make these with," Morris said, indicating that the wood and glass in the log cabins and other projects are simply discarded pieces he finds at the lumber yard or around his home.

"The only things I buy are the hinges, the glue and the clear paint," he continued.

The craft begins with colorful magazine pictures that are rolled up into tiny "logs" and taped in the middle. These are then cut on each side to fit the area needed. The logs are glued one by one onto a wooden frame, either box, vase or cabin, and left to dry.

Morris builds every wooden item by hand and the cabins take him several days to finish. When all the logs are on the structure, the World War I veteran adds glass windows, window frames, a door, and sometimes a chimney.

The slanted roof is hinged at the top and then nailed to the back wall of the cabin. To finish the cabin, pictures are glued to the inside walls, in the door and windows. Finally, a coat of "clear paint" is applied to the finished product.

Plastic clothes line cord is used to decorate the top of some of the boxes and vases. "The cord costs 1 cent a foot," Morris noted and is cut in two-inch lengths, then placed in the end of the "logs," to give the top a woven look.

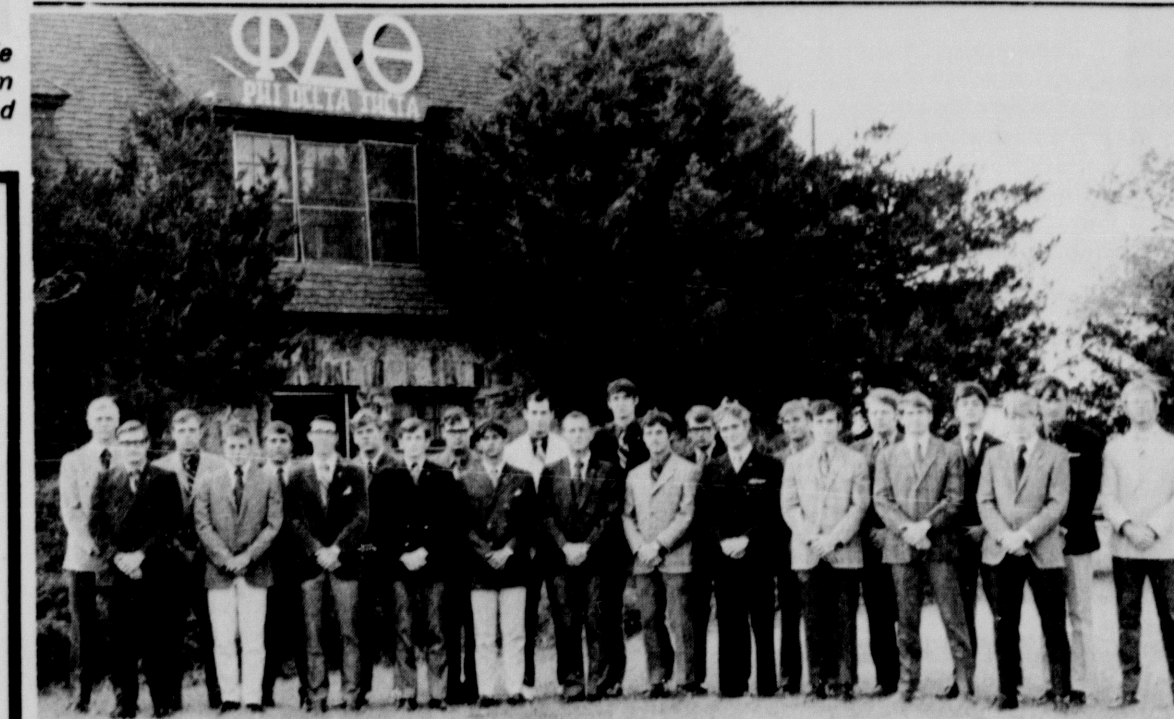

The hobby is "interesting and I like it," the Canyon resident said. "It's a lot of fun."

Morris gives his crafts to his relatives and friends all during the year.

"It's one of the best gifts I can make," he said. "Everytime I give someone something it makes them happy and makes me happy."

"I've always been a working man and I just can't be idle," he continued. "I'm not going to sit down and grieve about the past."

Morris rides a converted bicycle with three wheels, about a mile or more a day, collects photos of all sorts for his "picture museum" that is housed in his room, and is an avid baseball fan. He has lived in Canyon since 1941 and will be eighty-one on Christmas Eve.

had been more than "18 to 20 inches away."

"I would think it was probably less than 12 inches away, possibly as close as three inches," Dr. Finney said.

The doctor said a person would lose approximately one-third of the blood supply before going into shock and that Horodnycky "had not enough loss of blood to put him in shock."

Dr. Jose Diaz-Esquivel, a pathologist, said he had performed autopsies on both women and that Mrs. Samuels had died from a gunshot wound to the head that indicated "the pistol must have been held within six inches."

After the prosecution rested their case, Horodnycky took the stand in his own defense.

Horodnycky testified that Mrs. Samuels had helped with his children off and on while Mrs. Horodnycky was in the hospital "about 15 times." He said he had known her "four or five years" and that he had met her in an Amarillo bar.

The defendant said he was born in the Ukraine and had served in the Russian Army in 1941 before entering the United States in 1949.

Horodnycky's language problem was emphasized when Dunlap asked him if he had shot Mrs. Samuels and he answered "right." He later denied having shot either woman or himself.

four explorer posts. Five boys from Canyon will go to the world Scout Jamboree in Japan next year.

Money raised in Canyon will be spent to maintain the Scouting program locally and at District, state and national levels. One of the most obvious uses of the money on a district level is maintenance of Camp Don Harrington.

Almost every Scout in Canyon takes an outing at Don Harrington at least once a year. The Camp is located in the Canyon community about 4 miles north of the Washington Street-Palo Duro Road junction.

The funds also help to pay the district Scout executive and to provide materials for various troops in the district. It also provides for the training for all adult leaders in Scouting.

"I Promise I'll Work As Hard At Being Your State Senator As I Worked To Get Elected!"

I grew up on work. Starting with odd jobs while a youngster in Phillips. I continued by working my way through Baylor and the University of Texas Law School waiting tables, selling Bibles and working in the oil fields. Since graduation I've been a practicing attorney.

At the beginning of this campaign I went to each county to file for the office of State Senator. Since then my wife and I have traveled over 16,000 miles meeting and talking with people throughout the district. . . listening to what you want in government. It has been a privilege to visit with you in your homes, on your jobs and on the streets of your towns.

I have worked long hours as a candidate but I have enjoyed every minute of it. Elect me State Senator and I promise I won't let you down. I'll be back in your town just as often to listen to you and learn how you want to be represented in Austin.

I want to be your State Senator and will appreciate your vote.

VOTE FOR Max SHERMAN FOR STATE SENATOR

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3RD!

He Will Listen To You and He Will Be Listened to In Austin!

Pol. Adv. by Citizens for MAX SHERMAN, Don Ham, Chairman

ly since July, 1969.

The defense attorneys brought out that although the rifle and shotgun belonged to the defendant the .38 caliber pistol belonged to Mrs. Samuels.

Under cross examination by Dowlen Horodnycky stoutly maintained that a stranger bent on robbery shot him and the two women.

"Now you are all going to die," he quoted the robber as having said. He related that the gunman fired a shot at him and missed and then shot him in the face.

"I don't remember anything after that," Horodnycky testified in broken English.

Testimony developed that Horodnycky lived in Poland before he emigrated to this country after having served in the Russian Army during World War II. As a Russian soldier he drove a wagon hauling supplies up to the front.

Horodnycky admitted that he had lived with Mrs. Samuels for several months, unemployed, "living off her money." He also testified that Mrs. Samuels had told him to leave about three days prior to the shooting.

He said Mrs. Samuels was going to visit a daughter and he was going to visit his wife who was in a mental institution in Wichita Falls.

He denied ever having threatened to kill Mrs. Samuels and said he didn't recall the police ever coming out to the Samuels home because of disturbances there.

On re-direct he did recall being arrested on two occasions at the Samuels home. Horodnycky was on cross examination for almost an hour.

Mrs. Nadea Derring, Lubbock, daughter of the defendant, testified of having been told by her father that he was going to have her mother committed so he could marry Cora.

"I'm sorry," she whispered in the direction of her father.

She also testified that her mother had been in the mental hospital at Wichita Falls for most of her life and that her father took care of the family doing washing, ironing and cooking as well as working to earn a living.

Another daughter, Anna Horodnycky said she visited her father in the hospital after the shooting and he asked why Cora had not come.

The daughter said she told her father Cora was dead and a tear rolled down his cheek.

B. Tom Morrison, Hale Center, counselor for the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, testified that the defendant has a lame right arm with a bad grip in the right hand.

Dowlen tried to establish that Horodnycky could have guided the shotgun even with a lame right arm.

Amarillo Patrolman Bruce Gibbs, one of the first officers at the scene, told of having notified headquarters that a fourth person might be involved in the shooting after a preliminary search of the premises failed to turn up a weapon.

third person was across the street with a high powered rifle and would shoot anyone who moved.

The trio ran for a window and got the make and model of the getaway car as soon as the pair was out the door. The two drove away in a black and white 1964 Pontiac stolen in Lubbock the night before.

Across the street in Tirey's Hardware Mrs. Lena Cabe took the license number. The license plates had been stolen in Snyder.

The getaway car was abandoned at a vacant house on Wayside Road. Officers believe a third accomplice may have been waiting with a second car. The abandoned car was searched for clues.

Authorities said the smaller of the two bandits who entered the bank is believed to have been a woman. A witness said long hair was revealed when the smaller of the two removed a mask as the getaway car sped away.

Also several cigarettes found in the car's ash tray bore lipstick markings.

back Bob Wyatt, who has 11 receptions for 99 yards and one score. Wyatt also leads the team in rushing with 124 yards gained on 54 carries.

Leading the defense is right corner back Leonard Dunlap. He leads the nation in interceptions with seven, two more than his closest rival. The speedy defender has returned those seven thefts 132 yards for one touchdown.

Hinders Named To Dairy Team

Mike Hinders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Hinders of Canyon, has been selected as a member of the Junior Dairy Judging Team at Kansas State University, at Manhattan.

To become a member of the judging team, a KSU student must first demonstrate his ability for judging in the dairy judging class during his freshman or sophomore year. The instructor of the class asks the top individuals of the class to try out for the five-member team.

A sophomore in dairy science, Hinders remarked, "Besides the fun and enjoyment involved, I am also getting more experience and am in closer contact with the people in my major field of study."

Hinders, who has lived on a dairy farm all of his life, has had previous judging experience in FFA and 4-H competitions.
